

ANNUAL REPORT 2018-2019

STREET PLAY ON FEMALE FETICIDE

In order to promote social commitment among cadets, to equip them with leadership and personality skills, and to develop their manifold potentials, various extension and extra activities are engaged by the cadets of BCM College. The street play conducted on women's day-named "Let them say" was just one among them. With an aim to motivate people for not killing or abandoning a baby girl at the time of her birth, the cadets of BCM College organized a street play outside, District hospital Kottayam and Mall of Joy on 08 March 2018.

The street play inaugurated by Mrs.Bindhu Kumari Medical superintendent of distinct hospital in presence of Dr.Anjaly Krishna and Lt.Dr.Reeja ANO of BCM College NCC unit. The message of the play was loud and clear- the play highlighted the root causes and consequences of female foeticide. The prime idea behind the play was to publicly condemn the traditional patriarchal norms that perpetuate the promotion of such social evils.The play was headed by JUO

Gopika Gopalakrishnan and attracted huge crowd. The play concluded on the note that a chance given to women can also bring about changes!!

NATIONAL MOTHER TONGUE DAY CELEBRATION.

National Cadet Corps with the motto 'Unity and Discipline', aims to develop character, patriotism, spirit of adventure and leadership qualities among students. On the occasion of the National Mother Tongue day celebration also, they came up with an inspiring idea of teaching. The NCC cadets of BCM college, knowing the significance, value and the true cultural linguistic intention of their mother tongue, Malayalam, which plays a great role in the growth of his or her knowledge and to impart this knowledge to the society, which elevates education to a level of moral education among the society as well as for its welfare, ventured to make it realize to others. On behalf of National Mother Tongue Day the NCC cadets taught two apprentice women of BCM college hostel Miss Salmy and Miss Hasda to write their name and the basic alphabets in Malayalam.

SWACHH BHARAT MISSION

NCC UNIT OF BCM COLLEGE SPONSORED WASTE BIN TO DISTRICT HOSPITAL KOTTAYAM

The aim was to maintain ecological and environmental balance, motivate youth to participate in Swachh Bharat Abhiyan and to make aware public about necessity to keep public hospitals clean.

The idea of using a waste bin with lid may reduces the incidence of windblown litter resulting in cleaner streets and water drainage system led us to this initiative. There was a lot of waste material like polythene bags discarded clothes and other waste material in the hospital. As a solution for disposing those wastes we the cadets took the initiative. Rev. Fr. Philmon Kalathara (Bursar of BCM College) granted a waste bin on knowing our needs. The waste bin was handover to district hospital authorities by UO Gopika Gopalakrishnan and other NCC cadets by the guidance of GCI Devika Ajit.

BCM COLLEGE NCC UNIT OBSERVED ROAD SAFETY DAY

Traffic duty and traffic awareness class marked the observance of road safety day observance by BCM College NCC unit. To reduce accidents and create awareness among road users, 27 April 2018 was being observed as road safety day during which various awareness programmes were planned by the guidance of GCI

Devika Ajit. Cadets have received the guidelines for road safety from GCI Devika Ajit. GCI explained about the need to make awareness among public about road safety and the role of NCC cadets involved in it.

CADETS ON TRAFFIC DUTY

In a bid to create awareness about traffic rules among public and to get firsthand experience in the challenges involved in regulating traffic, NCC cadets of BCM college done the role of traffic police on 27 April 2018. The cadets could regulate traffic at Kanjikuzhi junction where (Puthuppalli, Pampady, Manganam, Kottayam, Thiruvanchoor roads) meet, in the city on the day. The programme is being organized in collaboration with the traffic police under the leadership of UO Gopika Gopalakrishnan. The cadets have received a detailed briefing from the traffic policemen on duty as well as our GCI. This has been done mainly to provide manpower to deal with the problem and giving knowledge about traffic rules to these young citizens of the country

TRAFFIC AWARENESS CLASS

Acknowledging that children are the best medium to appraise their parents and family about traffic rules and regulations, NCC cadets of BCM College conducted a traffic awareness class to 45 selected students of St. Anne's higher secondary school Kottayam. The students were explained rules and regulations at St. Anne's H.S.S on 27 April 2018. The awareness session was led by LCPL Uthara Nair . Traffic control equipments like the speed detector, alcohol detector and various other traffic control equipments were also displayed on power point presentation for the students. The session also explained the importance of traffic control and the various hazards caused by uncontrolled traffic.

BCM COLLEGE NCC UNIT CONDUCTED STREET PLAY ON DRUG ABUSE

‘NO DRUGS... PLEASE!’

Knowing the fact that awareness is the only way to deal with this serious issue of drug abuse, BCM college NCC cadets conducted the street play named "No drugs..Please!". On 10th May 2018 a group of 18 cadets actively participated and portrayed different roles in the street play under the leadership of UO Gopika Gopalakrishnan. The street play that presented in presence of Lt.Dr.Reeja P.S, ANO of BCM College NCC unit and GCI Devika Ajit attracted huge crowd.

The idea is to generate awareness among children on the dangers of pan masala, tobacco products, liquor and drugs. The street play portrayed the ways in which substance abuse can wreck youth. NCC is an icon of discipline and leadership and works for and with the target age group. And we are looking forward for new initiatives to encourage healthy choices and a drug free lifestyle in order to keep the commitment to social causes.

INDEPENDENCE DAY CELEBRATION

Independence Day celebration was inaugurated with Josephina Simon Principal of BCM College in presence of Lt. Dr. Reeja. P. S , ANO of BCM college. Independence Day parade was held under the leadership of UO. Gopika Gopalakrishnan which was commanded by SGT. Christy Sara Raju. Cadets who have participated in Independence Day parade received medals from principal and vice principal

CHLORINATION

Decades after, as Kerala faced a terrifying natural disaster where the houses were besieged with flood water annihilating many sacrifices, hard work and dreams of the people, the NCC cadets of BCM college with the realization of their responsibility step forward to rebuild their society. As a result of the disaster, the probability of spreading water borne diseases were considered as high. For people to be in their pink of health, the cadets set forth on 30th Aug 2018 to the houses of the people who were in flood relief camps where they sought for shelters. To prevent the spread of water borne diseases, water chlorination method was directed. The wells were chlorinated with bleaching powders by the cadets. 15 cadets from BCM COLLEGE NCC UNIT were present.

SEMINAR CLASS ON SWACHH BHARAT

A seminar class related to the topic swachh Bharat was conducted on 27th of October, 2018 at BCM college by the NCC unit of the college. The classes were taken by Asst. Professor Prajitha P. S and Asst. Professor Jeminsha Antony ,Home Science Department, along with the presence of Lt. Dr. Reeja. P. S, ANO of BCM College. 65 cadets were present in the class. The class helped the cadets with the ideas to keep their own personal hygiene at camps.

TRAINING CLASS FOR VOTERS ID REGISTRATION

The cadets of BCM College , Kottayam , NCC unit attended the class held at Kottayam taluk office on 9th November 2018 . Cadets those who attended the class were trained for the voters id registration procedure via smart phones. The class was taken by Mr. Anil and Mr. Vinod of the voters id department of the taluk office.10 cadets attended the class.

NCC DAY CELEBRATION

NCC day was celebrated on 28th of November, 2018. 5 k girls NCC unit of BCM College and St. Anne's HSS celebrated the day together at Sr.Savio hall, BCM College. The guest of the function was Mr.Babu Paul, Vice chancellor of Mahatma Gandhi University, Kottayam. The principals of BCM College and St.Annes HSS were present. Anos of both the institution Lt.Dr.Reeja P S and Lt. Tiji C K were also present. Cadets were given medals for their achievements in IGC and IDC competitions by the vice chancellor. The function was graced and mesmerized by the cultural events of the cadets of both institutions

SEMINAR:"SWACHHTA PAKHWADA"

A seminar was conducted by BCM College NCC unit on the topic “SWAACHTA PAKHWADA” on 15th December 2018. It was scheduled at 11.00 am at BCM College . Gyneacologist Dr.Leena from Kottayam district hospital lead the seminar for the cadets .69 cadets were present for the seminar . The cadets were sensitized about the importance of personal hygiene and healthy habits. Seminar which was also conducted in the presence of Lt.Dr.Reeja .P.S , ANO of BCM College NCC unit was also beneficial for academic and health related doubts aroused in the minds of the cadets. The seminar was concluded by an interactive session with the doctor.

HARITHA KERALAM RALLY

As part of haritha keralam a cycle rally was arranged from Decathlon , Thellakam. The first leg of the rally was from Decathlon to SH mount and the 2nd leg was from SH mount to Shastri road , BCM College principal Mrs. Josephina Simon flaged off the rally from Shastri road to BCM college , Kottayam. At the function Cpl . Parvathy Salimkumar delivered a feedback about haritha keralam. 20 cadets diligently participated in the rally along with the NSS volunteers . The rally was conducted on 23rd of January 2019.

REPUBLIC DAY PARADE

Republic day parade competition was conducted by the police department of Kottayam at police parade ground, Kottayam. The competition was conducted on 26th January 2019. Cadets of BCM College NCC unit enthusiastically participated on the competition under the leadership of SUO. Gopika Gopalakrishnan. The chief guest of the Republic day parade was the water authority Minister of kerala Shri.K Krishnankutty. 28 Cadets participated in the parade competition. After the competition held at police parade ground , flag hosting ceremony was done by the principal of the institution Mrs.Josephina Simon at the college campus in which the cadets of the institution attended.

ACHIEVEMENTS

* SUO Gopika Gopalakrishnan got selected for the Chief Minister scholarship 2018 .

* UO Sneha Merin Saji participated at National Shooting Competition held at Chandigarh , Punjab.

* UO Sneha Merin Saji and SGT Reshma Baby participated in IGC–RD.

* CPL Parvathy Salimkumar participated in IGC-TSC.