

KSWDC WOMEN'S CELL,

BCM COLLEGE

REPORT 2018-2019

- PROGRAMME 1 – Half day seminar

On 9th November we organized a half day seminar on “Healthy womanhood: A need for better tomorrow”. The first session was administered by Adv. Sindhu Gopala Krishnan on the topic “Changing concept of marriage and family: A legal perspective”. The session threw light on many relevant issues like broken marriages and growing trends of divorce. Dr. Kurian Thomas, Pediatrician and Rtd.

Professor of Kottayam Medical College, administered the second session on the topic “Grooming a healthy motherhood”.

The session focused on malnutrition of mothers and the problems that arises along with it. The session included a total of 530 students along with teachers and staffs.

- PROGRAMME 2- Street play

KSWDC Women Cell organized a street play “Janikkum Munpe Poliyunna Geevanukal” based on the burning issue female feticide on 10th December at district hospital, Kottayam. The play grabbed the attention of the pedestrians and other people and made them realize abortion of female fetus is an act of murder.

- PROGRAMM 3- Visit to orphanage

As part of our Christmas celebration members of KSWDC Women Cell and teachers visited a orphanage Sandvanam on 20th December 2017 and shared the spirit of Christmas by spreading the love and joy with the inmates. The students celebrated Christmas by distributing cakes and sweets and by singing Christmas carols.

PROGRAMME: 4

Members of KSWDC Women cell published a manuscript named “URVARA” which portrayed articles, poems and writings related to gender issues.