

THE BISHOP CHULAPARAMBIL MEMORIAL COLLEGE, KOTTAYAM

Research And Journal Club
Report 2017-2018

To ensure the quality of Research among the teachers in Arts, the College has constituted a Research Club for all the faculty in Arts. The Research Club always ensured that the papers published by the Faculty were scholarly and relevant to the time. The Faculty were given an opportunity to present their papers in front of other Faculty members. It followed discussions, healthy criticisms in order to help the authors bring out better papers. The Club also gives the students of the College an opportunity to listen and involve in the activities so that they inculcate the Research Culture in them.

Teachers in charge of Research Club

Dr. Reeja P.S

Ms. Elizabeth Johny

Activities

Presentation on “Bioregionalism and Ecoconsciousness in Amitav Ghosh's novel The Hungry Tide” by Ms. Riya Susan Scariah on 26th July 2017. The presentation was very fruitful and the teachers in English Department delivered literary comments on the Presentation for making it a better paper. 15 teachers and 21 students participated in the session.

Presentation on “Breaking Open the Seals: An Outlook on the Book of Revelation and its Artistic Inspiration” by Dr. Nithya Mariam John on 10th July 2017. It was a Scholarly presentation and the audience were interested in the topic throughout the session 11 teachers and 17 students were present during the session

Presentation on “Fundamentals of Business Statistics” by Ms. Shalini Thomas on 25th July 2017. It was a fruitful session with data presented on screen through ppt. 16 Faculty members and 22 students were present for the session. Students from the Economics department asked many questions.

Presentation on “Banking- A tool for relationship marketing of Commercial Banks in Kerala wsr to SIB Ltd” by Jupin V Jimmy on 20th August 2017. The presentation was very useful for others. The queries were explained well. 12 Faculty members and 27 students were present for the session.

Presentation on “Technology and Cultural Change : A Case Study of Mannan Tribes in Kerala” Dr. Reeja P.S on 2nd September 2017. The session was very interesting and the topic was socially relevant. The audience were curious about the topic and the session followed a discussion session. There were many critical comments from the audience. 16 Faculty members and 29 students participated in the session.

Presentation on “A Space of Her Own: Writing the Gendered Subaltern” by Ms. Neethu Varghese on 10th October 2017. The session was well organised. The topic was very interesting and enlightened the minds of the students. It was followed by a question and answer session as the students had many questions. There were 14 teachers and 25 students.

Presentation on “A Microcosm of Life and Death: A Review of The Utmost Happiness” by Dr. Nithya Mariam John on 15th November 2017. The session was very fruitful and the students were exposed to new terms. There were 15 teachers and 27 students.

Presentation on “Retelling of Margaret Atwood's The Handmaid's Tale in Modern Times” by Ms. Ponnu Liz Maliekal on 12th December 2017. The presentation was useful for the students. 16 teachers and 24 students were present for the session.

Presentation on “Is this Chick Lit from the Middle East? Examining Ameera Al Hakawati’s Desperate in Dubai as Chick Lit” by Ms. Phiona Elizabeth Joshy on 28th January 2017. The session was useful and the students were exposed to new terms in Literature. 15 teachers and 26 students were present for the students.

Presentation on “The Concept of oikos and ecological identity in Sarah Joseph's Gift in Green” by Ms. Riya Susan Scariah on 13th February 2017. The session was very fruitful and gave a new insight to the students of Literature. There were 14 Faculty members and 28 students.