

Action taken report 2017-2018

The students are properly informed about the gender equity policy during the admission process. Every department separately gives orientation to the students and conducted programmes such as debate, poster designing elocution etc. A talk on international woman's day was delivered by prof vijay Lakshmi. Martial arts training in Karate and Kalari were given to students. A class on personality development and street play on female feticide was organized. Training for Coconut tree climbing to familiarize and strengthen girl students physically and mentally to take up male dominated arenas was given to students during the academic year.