

Action taken report 2018-2019

Orientation programme for the freshers comprised of a session on importance of gender equity. Equal opportunity cell and women's cell coordinated various programs relevant to the theme gender sensitization. Driving classes were conducted for the students. Open forums were conducted for the frank exchange regarding existing gender notions and new perspectives in the theme. Girl students assisted traffic police and were engaged in cleaning of transport vehicles in the night time. Breast cancer awareness and hair donation campaign were organized. Training programme on cloth bag making, stitching and crafts were organized. Career guidance workshop was conducted.