Equal Opportunity Cell Report

2023-24

REPORT OF SHORT FILM FEST ORGANISED BY THE EQUAL OPPORTUNITY CELL

BCM College always aimed at blending value -based education and liberal outlook. Rather than educating women, the college has been committed in molding morally upright, socially committed women equipped to meet the challenges of the world. The Equal Opportunity cell was set up by the University of Delhi on 27 June 2006 to address the issues of women, differently able people and other minorities and thereby ensure that students and faculty belonging to various diverse backgrounds of community, religion region, gender or ability are not deprived of equal opportunities.

BCM College in collaboration with the Equal Opportunity Cell conducted four short film competitions and open forum under guidance of Dr Riya Susan Scariah, HOD of English Department and Minu Alex, Assistant professor, Department of English. They are as follows:

Film: Black Current

The short film 'Black Current' was presented at educational theatre in our college from 1 pm to 2 pm on 8th August 2023. Forty students participated in the event. The film reminds you that the way out may not be as hard as you may think it to be. Set in the modern day focusing on two individuals, it highlights the reality of not living up to society's standard. The screening of film was followed by an interactive session where students and teachers actively participated.

Conclusion

The films portrayed different experiences of people belonging to different sections of the society, their problems and how they try to overcome and solve their problems. The experience was interesting as it provides students with a whole lot of perspectives and change in their mind set and to be a better version of themselves.
